

Initial Reflection Paper

This paper is a chance for you to begin thinking about how theories have influenced your work with students as well as your own development. You should reflect using multiple perspectives including formal and informal theories. It is important that this reflection encompass many aspects of your identities. This paper should be 6-8 pages in length and is due in class on January 20th.

Integrated Reflection Paper

Theories are best understood when a person is able to apply them to his or her own development. Using your Initial Reflection Paper as a guide, this assignment is intended for you to integrate theories learned in this course. Although you will be referring to your previous paper, this assignment is not a personal reflection. It is a chance for you to demonstrate your knowledge of formal theories as they pertain to your development. This paper should be 10-12 pages in length and is due in class on April 28th. You are required to use proper APA formatting.
